

Abstract Submission Terms and Conditions

The terms and conditions are listed below:

1. When submitting an abstract, the author(s) understand that if the abstract is successful:
 - while they retain ownership of copyright of their presentation, AHURI may publish their abstract, PowerPoint presentation and/or any biographical information in the conference pocket program, media releases, social media platforms and on the conference website, portal and/or app;
 - their presentation may be filmed and/or audio recorded and may be made available after the presentation and /or conference;
 - their final PowerPoint presentation will be collected prior to the conference and uploaded to the conference portal/app and to the conference website; and
 - should their final PowerPoint presentation change to what was provided prior to the conference, the revised version will be collected and uploaded to the conference portal/app and website.
2. Traditional presentation opportunities are limited, and many speaking roles will be as panellists and respondents, meaning your role in the session may vary from your original submission
3. Acceptance is conditional on the speaker registering to attend the conference.
4. Speakers must register by Sunday 4 May 2025 and have paid for their registration no later than Wednesday 21 May 2025.
5. Speakers will be provided a special registration rate; the details will be sent upon acceptance of the invitation to participate in the conference.
6. Speakers acknowledge that if they have not registered by 4 May 2025 and paid by 21 May 2025, AHURI may withdraw the invitation to present at the conference.
7. Speakers are responsible for their own travel, accommodation, and incidentals in respect to attending the conference.

Notes for speakers with lived experience of housing vulnerability who are speaking in this capacity

8. AHURI welcomes the perspectives of people with lived experience of housing vulnerability as speakers where appropriate. If you are making a submission that includes a speaker who is bringing a lived experience perspective, please ensure you have read the following AHURI documents:
 - Our commitment to including the voices of Lived Experience
 - AHURI policy for Lived Experience participation payment
9. If a Lived Experience speaker is not in a paid position at a relevant organisation, AHURI will provide them with complimentary registration.
10. Payment, travel and accommodation costs for a speaker with Lived Experience remain the responsibility of the organisation including them in the abstract submission.
